Dear Mr. Robbins:

In response to my letter of February 25, 2004, thank you for providing check copies of the contributors for the Organizational report. The question of Mr. Brent Bruner's contribution of $250.00 has been clarified because his check copy clearly states that it is a personal account. In regards to Mr. Lewis E. Hubbard's contribution of $100.00, it would be possible to submit a statement by him as evidence that the contribution was made with personal and not business funds. Form CRO-6300 is enclosed and may be appropriate for use. Please send it to Mr. Hubbard for his consideration.

If you have any questions, please call me at 703-2808. Your prompt attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Judy J. Speas

Re: Hubbard Donation

Ms. Speas,

Attached is a printout of the Personal Banking options with BB&T. As you can see, Elite Gold classification is indicative of BB&T Personal Banking. BB&T states that Elite Gold Accounts are for persons, not businesses or corporations. The sites:

<http://www.bbandt.com/commercial/>

<http://www.bbandt.com/smallbusiness/>

Detail the account options for BB&T customers. Elite Gold is not an option for businesses or corporations. In addition to this information, you may call BB&T at (336) 733-3300 to verify the nature of ~~account~~ (The personal account of Mr. Hubbard) They can tell you if the account is indeed a personal account and verify all of the information you requested.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Robbins:

Thank you for providing information regarding the personal financial account of Mr. Lewis E. Hubbard. The question of his contribution being from a business or personal account has been clarified because his financial institution clearly states that his particular account is only for individuals.

If I may be of assistance, I may be reached at 703-2808.

Sincerely,
